

ENTIRE FACE OF DRIFT ON 1000 FOOT LEVEL OF THE HALIFAX IN ORE THAT ASSAYS BETTER $100

Samples taken from the entire face of the southwest drift on the 1000 foot level of the Halifax show the newly encountered body to assay better than $100 to the ton. Assays were made last evening after the face had been sampled by General Manager S. H. Brady, Ben F. Edwards, vice president of the West End, and Senator Thos. Kearns, vice president of the Halifax. The sample was generous in that it took the entire face of the drift which is in ore. Later in the evening after a round of shots had advanced the drift, the face showed further enrichment and this morning Brady stated that he was of the opinion the ore would assay at least between $125 and $150 a ton. The extent of the ore body has not been proved as the drift has been sent along with the vein. Cross cutting will shortly be undertaken and then the possibilities of the discovery will be learned.

At a point where the ore was first encountered, about 300 feet from the shaft, the assays showed the body to be about $20 rock. Since that the values have been increasing with every foot of progress and after sending the drift ahead to the extent of about 25 feet, the high grade ore is now being extracted. The drift is being run along the hanging wall side of the vein and from present indications a gigantic ore body will be opened up as soon as exploration work has been carried out on the lower levels.

SIX THOUSAND FOOT TUNNEL OPENS ON PROPERTY OF KNOX INTERESTS.

McEachen spent yesterday at Hawthorne and while in that district learned of an important strike made in the 6000 foot tunnel at Lucky Boy on the property being operated by the Knox interests. It was reported that a good grade of ore had been encountered. The tunnel passed through the contact a short time ago and it has been expected that the ore body would be picked up.

Adams and Miller, who are interested in the property, were the original operators, but some time ago Knox and Jessie Knight of Utah secured the control and have since been developing the ground by sending in the tunnel.

OREANA, THEN NIXON IS KNOWN AS NENZEL

At last a name has been selected for the ore shipping point for Rochester district, says the Rochester miner. For two score years and more the title Oreana was deemed satisfactory, but when Rochester was struck confusion arose.

There is a Southern Pacific station in California by the name of Oecana and this caused freight to be mislabeled. The company then changed the name of the station to Nixon, but there arose difficulty in securing a postoffice, there being another Nixon, supplied with a postoffice in Nevada.

A compromise has been reached by naming the station Nenzel, after the discoverer of Rochester. Now the discoverer of Rochester. Now the same name.

"ETIQUETTE" IN ADVERTISING.

Up to within the last few years it has been considered a breach of etiquette in certain businesses and professions to advertise.

These men have said: "Oh, yes, advertising is all very well for the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, but it would not do at all for us. It is not good business ethics."

In later years, however, that idea is being abandoned, together with a lot of other old and worn out theories.

The public now looks to the advertising section of the good newspapers for information on all subjects. The demand has created the supply.

People want to know not only where they can spend their money, but where and how to invest it. This has led bankers, brokers, and other business and professional men to tell their stories in the best newspapers.

The advertising pages of a newspaper like the BONANZA are a veritable index of most lines of business activity in this community, and the day is not far distant when every legitimate business and every recognized profession will understand the value of advertising.

NEW ARIZONA LAWS UPON MINE TAX QUESTION

PRODUCING MINES MUST PAY ON BASIS WHICH APPEARS TO BE EXCESSIVE.

Attention is called to a rather drastic law just signed by Governor Hunt of Arizona, which gives the state a new basis of taxing producing mining properties. Under the provisions of this law the basis of taxation will be at four times the net profit plus one-eighth of the gross production plus the value of the improvements. It is expected that this new law will increase the taxation value of producing mines from $45,000,000 to $125,000,000 in 1913, as compared with 1912.

In mentioning this law editorially the Engineering and Mining Journal has the following comment to make: "There no doubt has been a good deal of tax dodging on the part of some of the mining companies in the past. This led naturally to a wave of dissatisfaction, which has carried the assessment higher than probably it really should be. However, the law recently enacted runs for only two years, and after all, its bearing will depend upon the assessment of the rest of the state."

"In 1912 the mines of Arizona were assessed at $5,000,000, the remainder of the property of the state, including the ranch land and cattle, glong in at $95,000,000, or a total of $100,000,000. It is estimated that this year the producing and non-producing mines will be put in at $125,000,000 and the remainder of the property in the state at $200,000,000, but the latter valuation may be only $175,000,000. Assuming the latter figure, the total valuation of the state will be about $300,000,000, making the mines pay about 42 per cent of the taxes. In 1912 they paid but 31.7 per cent."

However, it is expected that noisy serenades will be in order for the next few nights and the groom will be made to atone for failing to let his friends in on the secret. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell will make Tonopah their future home.
